Maribeth Decker is an intuitive animal communicator, energy healer, and founder of Sacred Grove Animal Communication.

Through her work, she helps pets and their people create "pawsitive" change by deepening understanding, easing challenges, and strengthening the love they share.

With compassion and insight, Maribeth supports animals experiencing physical, emotional, or behavioral concerns, helping families find greater peace, healing, and harmony together.

She is especially gifted in guiding pets and their people through life's tender transitions—whether welcoming an animal into the family, helping them adjust to a new home, or supporting a beloved companion's passage to the next life. Her work helps people feel grounded, comforted, and confident that they are making loving choices for everyone involved.

A retired Navy officer, Maribeth brings a lifetime of rich experience, steady presence, and heart-centered wisdom to every family she serves.

As a speaker, Maribeth is warm, comforting, and deeply engaging, with a wonderful sense of humor and a gift for storytelling. Audiences appreciate her ability to make meaningful spiritual and emotional insights feel accessible, practical, and filled with heart.
